Purpose and legal basis of the data processing

We process your personal data for the purpose of your application in the context of Call for Papers/Applications. As far as your personal data are required for the performance of the application procedure, the legal basis for saving the data is Art. 6 para. 1b GDPR. In case you have given additionally your explicit consent for the processing of your personal data for specific, optional purposes, the legal basis is Art. 6 para. 1a GDPR. A given consent can be withdrawn at any time (Art. 7 GDPR). Should it be necessary for legal prosecution, after the end of the application procedure, to store your data for a longer period of time this will be done to protect our legitimate interests in asserting or defending claims based on Art. 6 para. 1f GDPR.

Recipient of the data

Your personal data will only be passed on to those internal departments that require this data to fulfil contractual and legal obligations. It will not be passed on to third parties.

Storage period

In case of participating at some scientific activities your data will be nominated in the scientific research documentation of the Institute. The transmitted data will be deleted at the latest six months after the ending of the event. If costs were reimbursed to you in connection with your participation at some event or similar, we are legally obliged to keep the necessary accounting data for 10 years.

Rights of the person concerned

In general, you have the right of access to your data, Art. 15 GDPR, the right to rectification of inaccurate personal data, Art. 16 GDPR, the right to erasure of the data if they have been processed unlawfully, Art. 17 GDPR, as well as the right to restriction of processing, Art. 18 GDPR, and data portability, Art. 20 GDPR. A given consent can be withdrawn at any time, Art. 7 GDPR. Furthermore, you have the right of appeal to the supervisory authority. For the MPG this is the Bavarian regional data protection supervisory authority (Bayerisches Landesamt für Datenschutzaufsicht), Postfach 1349, 91504 Ansbach / Germany.
